

Do you draw?

Have fun drawing the below!

If you were to draw Honesty as a person, what would they look like?

How many hearts/skulls/flowers/teeny-tiny elephants can you fit onto a piece of paper?

Can you draw things about which you are curious?

Draw an act of kindness.

Can you draw by how much wiser you are going to be in one year's time?

Draw someone very courageous.

Can you draw someone doing something for which perseverance is needed?

Draw three things you really love.

Can you turn the word 'knowledgeable' into a big, long, and beautiful meadow?
